CHOICE OF TRUSTEES/EXECUTORS

You will be the initial trustees of your trust. If one of you passes away, the surviving spouse will be the sole trustee. The successor and/or alternate trustees you name below will only become trustee(s) if neither of you are able. For successor trustee choices, it is usually best to select named beneficiaries, family members, or long-time close friends. You should list at least two choices for successor trustee in case your first choice is unavailable for some reason. The people you name here will have no power, control, or authority over you or your financial affairs while you are alive and have sufficient capacity to handle your own affairs.

BENEFICIARIES

Beneficiaries are those people to whom you wish to pass your estate upon your death. It is important to know that beneficiaries can be changed anytime you like by amending your living trust. You may specify a set percentage of your estate to each beneficiary or you may choose to let your estate pass to your beneficiaries in equal shares. If you choose to specify percentages, please be sure the total equals 100%. If you check the "equal share" box you do not need to fill in the percentages. If you will be naming more beneficiaries, please make additional copies of this page.

POWER OF ATTORNEY CHOICES

There are two types power of attorneys commonly used in estate planning. The first is a Durable Power of Attorney for assets and business affairs. Its purpose is to authorize someone to handle your day-to-day business affairs should you become incapacitated. The second is an Advance Health Care Directive (also know as a Durable Power of Attorney for health decisions). Both are designed to be “springing” power of attorneys – meaning that they only become valid if you become incapacitated or unable to handle your own affairs. Your spouse will automatically be your first choice. The selections you list below are only in case your spouse is unavailable or unable to act. Each spouse's choices can be different, if desired.

SCHEDULE OF ASSETS

As an attachment to your Living Trust you need to make a list of your assets you intend to place in the trust. The schedule of assets should sufficiently identify the asset, but should not state values. For example, on bank accounts you would list the name of the bank and the account number, but you would not list how much money is in the account.

Note: Retirement accounts such as IRAs and 401ks do not have to be listed here. They are handled differently for tax reasons. The attorney will discuss this with you during your appointment.

LEGAL FEES AND INFORMATION

We try to have a “No Surprise” policy concerning legal fees. This means it is important to us that you should know up front what your legal services will cost. Your quoted price is what you should expect to pay; however, there are some special circumstances that require additional attorney work. With that said, here are some things that can cost extra if any of these specific conditions apply in your situation:

Additional Provisions and /or Other Attorney Work	Additional Fees
Tax Bypass trust provisions. Commonly referred to as A-B provisions. Strongly recommended for estates exceeding the individual estate tax exemption (currently $2 million).	$120
Special needs trust provisions. Usually needed if a beneficiary is handicapped or disabled and receiving government benefits. Protects from the beneficiary from losing his or her benefits and stops the government from taking the inheritance.	$120
Non U.S. Citizens. Special estate tax considerations come into play with non U.S. citizens; therefore, special trust provisions are required.	$120
Assignment of business interests. Necessary when a client owns a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, or other business entity.	$60
Drafting and recording of specialty deeds. Occasionally clients need to remove a name on a property or to clear title before transferring into their trust. Includes the drafting of the deed, the drafting and filing of the required Preliminary Change Ownership Report, the County recording fees, all Notary fees, and sending everything to the County via certified mail.	$100
Drafting and recording of deeds for additional properties (concurrent with trust signing). Many of our clients own more than one property. The full estate plan package includes the transfer of one property. The fee quoted here is for each additional property transferred and includes the drafting of the deed, the drafting and filing of the required Preliminary Change Ownership Report, the County recording fees, all Notary fees, and sending everything to the County via certified mail.	$100
Hourly Rate. Our office strives to set flat rates on legal services so that clients will always know exactly what to expect regarding fees. In those unusual situations where a client requests work for which no flat rate has been established and cannot be estimated, our hourly rate will apply.	$240-$300

Our office also provides legal services in the areas of Probate (when necessary) and the formation of Corporations, LLCs, and Asset Protection Entities. We offer package pricing if you are interested in forming an LLC or Corporation at the same time as drafting your trust.
